Practice and Perfect Essential Skills in a Simulated Trial Setting

Are you ready to step into a courtroom with the ease and composure of a lawyer with countless wins at trial? What about walking into a settlement discussion knowing that you’re prepared to go to trial if the negotiation should fail?

For nearly fifty years, NITA has been the gold standard in teaching trial advocacy. Nowhere but through NITA can you receive personalized coaching by a veritable “who’s who” of advocacy experts—trial lawyers, judges, and law professors—from coast to coast.

If not, Building Trial Skills is for you.

BUILDING TRIAL SKILLS: LOS ANGELES

Make your resolution to improve your trial skills at the first course of the New Year.

JANUARY 2 – 7, 2020

Go to the Rose Bowl parade on the 1st, and start your course with NITA on the 2nd.

There’s no better place for you to practice what we preach than in a NITA classroom, where you will learn to:

✓ Deliver persuasive opening statement and closing argument
✓ Maximize the effect of direct examination
✓ Master the admission and use of exhibits
✓ Hone your cross-examination skills and learn the most persuasive way to impeach witnesses

Learning by doing

In front of the camera, you’ll perform each of these aspects of a trial, and learn not just from your own mistakes (and triumphs), but from those of your fellow participants as well. On-the-spot video review allows you to see and hear yourself the way jurors do. But unlike in a trial where there are real stakes at risk, at NITA you have the opportunity to correct your mistakes and eliminate any bad habits you may have developed. You’ll return to your office empowered to make immediate use of everything you learned.
